

More About ...
The Good Work of the
Peace and Social Justice
Ministry

The Peace and Justice Initiative at Daylesford Abbey is a community-based ministry, whose mission is to advance social justice and the common good, leading to a more peace-filled world through community activities, advocacy and education that promote human rights for all. In particular, we exist to help members of the Abbey worshipping community come to a greater awareness about local and global social justice issues, especially as taught by the U.S. Bishops Conference, and to take steps to put our faith vision into concrete action.
